Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
This Region

From : INGRID G. RACOMA, Ph.D., CESO V
OIC, Regional Director

Subject : Viewing of the Play "BONIFACIO: ISANG SARSUWELA"

1. To continuously recognize the role of women in nation-building and as provided for in Chapter 4, Sec. 16 of RA No. 9710 known as The Magna Carta of Women, that "mandates the State to formulate policies and programs for the advancement of women in collaboration with government and non-government media-oriented organization and to raise the consciousness of the general public in recognizing the dignity of women and the role and contribution of women in the family, community and the society through the strategic use of mass media", this Office promotes GAD mainstreaming through the implementation of gender equality guidelines for media, which includes protection of women against discrimination in media and film.
2. To provide an avenue for this, the play "Bonifacio: Isang Sarsuwela" by the Philippine Stagers Foundation will be staged on February 25-27, 2014 in the Atrium, Limketkai Center, Cagayan de Oro City.
3. While this activity highlights the enhancement of women participation it also promotes the vital roles of both men and women in societal change as contextualized in the play. Recognizing that gender equality is the cornerstone of development, this Office supports the activities leading to the empowerment of both men and women as indispensable tools in advancing development.
4. Participants to this activity are officials, teachers, school heads and supervisors who shall be responsible in the advocacy program of Gender and Development in their respective schools/offices.
5. Travel and other incidental expenses to be incurred while attending this activity will be charged against the Division Offices' school's GAD funds and/or Cultural Funds (per Section 43 of GAA) subject to the usual accounting rules and regulations.
