Officer In-charge
Office of the Regional Director

Dear Atty. Chatto:

Praised be Jesus and Mary!

St. Michael's College, as it approaches its centenary year, aims to boost its research culture through a wider participation. Hence, the school is organizing a NATIONAL CONGRESS on RESEARCH and SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY 2015 on October 26-28, 2015 which could greatly augment the individual's engagement in research. This event will provide an opportunity for researchers and educators to advance professional competencies and disseminate research outputs, share views and experiences to the various institutions and organizations which could enrich processes, systems and programs. Moreover, this is also a venue for finding partners for future collaboration.

In this regard, we would like to request from your good office for an endorsement of this momentous event for wide dissemination.

Hoping for a positive response on this request.

Thank you and more power.

Sincerely yours,

Committee on Programs and Invitations:

Engr. Maria Fe P. Bahinting

Saint Michael's College Announces the National Congress on Research and Social Responsibility (NCRSR)

Theme: Facing the World of Opportunities Through Research and Community Engagement

St. Michael's College, in celebration of its centenary year, will be hosting a NATIONAL CONGRESS ON RESEARCH AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (NCRSC) 2015 on October 26 – 28, 2015. This brings together researchers, educators, and personnel from government, non-government and private sectors. The school believes that boosting its research culture through wider participations could enrich respective institutions in terms of planning, decision-making, progressing one's systems and programs and globally advancing one's practices. Further, it will strengthen partnership and collaboration among various stakeholders and organizations.

This conference includes lectures, discussions, paper presentations and open fora. Presenters are encouraged to present original research papers that offer new knowledge and discoveries in any of the following topics which are relevant to the theme, Facing the World of Opportunities Through Research and Community Engagement: Arts and Humanities, Business, Education, Social Issues, Community Involvement, and Technology. Abstracts are to be submitted via email: smcresearchoffice@gmail.com on or before August 31, 2015. Notification of acceptance will be one week from abstract submission through email. The registration fee is Php 2,900 for presenters and early bird registrant while Php 3,400 for on-site registrant.

St. Michael's College is proud to be hosting this groundbreaking conference fostering research and community engagement and collaboration which is one among the many highlights of Saint Michael's College in its 100 years of grateful service.
