The Philippine-American Educational Foundation (PAEF/Fulbright), announces its Fulbright Graduate Students Program for academic year 2016-2017.

The program aims to enable deserving Filipinos to pursue their fields of study in the United States and develop leaders in their fields of specialization and to contribute to fostering mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the Philippines.

The program has a graduate degree studies (masters and PhDs) and non-degree status which means that fellows spend a considerable portion of their time engaged in off-campus activities such as internships, field trips, workshops and special projects that give practical experience in their professional fields.

The application forms and other instructions may be downloaded from Philippine-American Educational Foundation website: www.fulbright.org.ph or www.facebook.com/philippines.fulbrightcommission. For further inquiries and clarifications, kindly call at telephone numbers (02) 8120919 or email address at fulbright@fulbright.org.ph.

All applicants should be indorsed by their respective heads of divisions and region and submission of completed application must be sent to the Philippine-American Educational Foundation (PAEF) office , 10th Flr. Ayala Life-FGU Center, 6811 Ayala the United States and develop leaders who can contribute to promoting peace and development in the United States. Applications are accepted from faculty and staff of Philippine universities and professionals from the private and government sectors.

Grants under the Philippine Student Program are for a maximum of one academic year for non-degree, one to two years for master's, and two years for doctoral degree studies. The grant provides for round-trip international travel, monthly maintenance allowance, tuition and fees, book/supply allowance, and health and accident insurance.

Fields of Study

1. Study of the United States – The study of American culture, life, and society through such fields as government education, arts and humanities, law, economics, literature, history, the multi-disciplinary field of American Studies or any other humanities or social science field with significant study of the U.S. subject matter.
2. Global Issue – Fields of study include environment, human rights, civic education, governance and public administration, peace studies/conflict transformation, international relations and transnational issues, international economics, international business, international law, and information and communication technology (ICT).
3. Open Grants – Fields of study not covered by the first two field categories with the exception of engineering medicine, nursing, and other health-related disciplines, and applied sciences and mathematics.

General Eligibility Requirements

APPLICATION

A complete application consists of the following components:

1. APPLICATION FORM

In the first seven pages you will state biographical information, study objectives, curriculum vitae, and other information.

Often specific instructions for completing a question or item will be provided in the application. Please read all instructions carefully. In addition, please review the following important information.

Item 1 – Name: It is very important that you list your name exactly as it appears (or will appear) on your passport.

Item 12 – Institutions Attended: Please list all post-secondary institutions attended in reverse order (putting the most recently attended first). List all post-secondary institutions attended even those from which you did not achieve a degree.

Item 24 – Study/Research Objective: The study/research objective description that you provide is an essential and highly important part of your application. You should take great care to write a clear and very detailed description of the program you want to pursue. Clearly identify the area(s) within your field of study in which you want to specialize or concentrate. If there is specific research that you want to accomplish, please describe. An unclear, incomplete, or overly brief statement can diminish your chances for a Fulbright award.

Item 25 – Personal Statement: The personal statement is a narrative statement in which you can include information about your education, practical experience, special interests, career plans, and your purpose in applying for study in the U.S.

Page 7 – University Preferences: Please note carefully, it is not an expectation that you will have U.S. university preferences. However, if you do, please be specific. Do not just list the name of a university. Provide the name of the department and the specific program within that preferred program, please forward a copy (not the original) of this correspondence to the PAEF Office.

2. SUPPLEMENTAL FORM

Letters of Reference/Recommendation: You must have four letters of reference (or recommendation) submitted on your behalf. Letters of reference are extremely important. All letters of reference should be written by teachers under whom you have studied or pursued research or by someone who has supervised you in work related to your proposed field of study. Letters of reference should not be written by persons related to you either by blood or marriage or by personal friends. At least one academic and one professional or work-related letter should be included among the letters. The letters should be written in English and typewritten in blank ink or printed from a computer. Please be certain to ask that both pages of the form be completed.

3. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Transcripts: Applicants must attach official, complete and certified academic documents covering the entire period of study at universities and other post-secondary institutions. Documents must be accompanied by complete official English translations. These documents must consist of:

- One certified official record (transcript) from each university or post-secondary institution you attended, even those schools from which you did not receive a degree or diploma. These transcripts should list the subjects you studied and the grades you received during each year of your enrollment. Include all post-secondary institutions you have attended, even those from which you did not receive a degree or diploma. Official transcripts must be submitted in sealed envelopes.
- Certified, official evidence of each post-secondary or university degree, diploma or certificate awarded to you should be included as
