ESTUDYANTE is a movie with three stories.

Episode 1. TOCINO
 This is a story about two high-school best friends who continued to share their life's struggles despite the difference in financial status. One of them becomes an out-of-school youth, but his friend convinces him to find the strength and the resources to go back to school.

Episode 2. TITSER
 TITSER is about a striving young man that juggles the life of being a father, a dedicated grade-school teacher, and an aspiring student himself. This depicts the story of how continuous education is important for teachers who wish to share their knowledge to others, especially to the students that look up to them.

Episode 3. BASURA
 Poverty is said to be the common excuse for not having basic education. However, this episode shows the importance of education even among the poor families in our country. The story is about two young children who have been deprived of education but still hopes and struggles to learn.
