1. Pursuant to DepEd Memorandum No. 4, s. 2014 entitled Guidelines on the Preparation for the National Implementation of the Senior High School (SHS) Program in Non-DepEd Schools for SY 2016-2017 and Onwards and to ensure quality assurance in the implementation of the program, the following measures shall be observed prior to the approval of the Vouchers' Billing Statement submitted to the Regional PEAC Coordinator:

a. The Schools Division Superintendent shall issue Certificate of Compliance to private schools upon compliance with the following:

i. TESDA Certificate of Program Registration (CPR) of all TecVoc specializations offered by schools categorized as B, C, and D. Category B includes Non-DepEd schools, which have been issued a permit or government recognition by CHED to offer any higher education; Category C is Private Schools, which have been granted recognition by DepEd to offer Secondary Education (Grades 7-10); and Category D is Non-DepEd schools, which have been issued a permit or recognition by TESDA to offer any training course.

ii. Teachers handling TecVoc specializations must be National Certificate (NC) holders. The NC of teachers must also be higher than the potential graduates.

iii. Core and applied subjects must be taken up alongside the specialization subjects as specified in the submitted class programs, which reflect all the required SHS subjects duly evaluated and reviewed by the Division Curriculum Evaluator.

2. The Senior High School Voucher Program Billing Statement shall be processed only upon the submission of the Certificate of Compliance to the Regional Private Education Assistance Committee (PEAC) Coordinator. The
