TRAINING ENHANCEMENT FOR ALS MOBILE TEACHERS AND DISTRICT ALS COORDINATORS

To: Schools Division Superintendents
Assistant Schools Division Superintendents

1. In line with the DepEd-Regional Office commitment to achieve Education For All (EFA) targets and in pursuit to its mission of providing quality, equitable and responsive education to the target learners in the community, the ALS Division will conduct an enhancement training-workshop for Division EPS in ALS, ALS Mobile Teachers and District ALS Coordinators on the following schedule to wit:

1st Batch	August 28-30, 2012	RELC, Lapasan, CDO
2nd Batch	September 4-6, 2013	RELC, Lapasan, CDO
3rd Batch	September 11-13, 2013	RELC, Lapasan, CDO

2. The said training-workshop aims to hone each participant's capability on situational analysis, planning, implementing and monitoring and evaluation specifically to:
 - ❖ revisit and determine the performance based on the ALS Mandates
 - ❖ thresh out problems, issues and concerns that hamper the efficient and effective implementation of ALS programs and projects
 - ❖ share and exchange significant stories and challenges happening in the ALS implementation
 - ❖ revisit and adjust division and district plans in line with the ALS Mission and Vision
3. Each participant must bring laptop, Quarter Reports (1st and 2nd) and accomplished eMIS which will be used for the workshop. Enclosed are the matrix of activities and number of participants per division/cluster for the guidance of all concerned
4. A Registration of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (P2,500.00) shall be collected from each participant to cover or defray the expenses for the kits, meals, accommodation chargeable against local funds subject to the existing government accounting and auditing policies, rules and regulations.
5. Wide dissemination and compliance to this memorandum is highly desired
