The National Volunteer Month (NVM) is celebrated every December pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 55, dated December 5, 1988. The Philippine National Volunteer Service Coordinating Agency (PNVSCA), an attached agency of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), will spearhead the 2014 National Volunteer Month (NVM) Celebration assisted by an NVM Steering Committee (NVM-SC) chaired by NEDA in planning and organizing NVM activities. The Department of Education (DepEd) is a member of the NVM-SC in the Philippines which takes pride in our rich history of volunteerism through the "bayanihan". NVM is a fitting tribute to the volunteers – modern-day heroes whose work is exemplified by commitment and service to others.

With this year's theme Volunteering for the Environment, the Celebration aims to:

- a. build nationwide public awareness and appreciation of volunteerism;
- b. create the environment for voluntary action; and
- c. recognize volunteers as partners in development.

It is a timely platform to translate the Millennium Development Goal (MDG) on environmental sustainability and its vital implications to the climate and the future of the next generation. Volunteers, volunteer service organizations, and volunteerism stakeholders are called and encouraged to be part of the unceasing campaign to protect, preserve, and sustain the environment through participation in national and local policy and plan development, promotion and advocacy, and support of programs, projects and activities for environmental causes.

NVM calls on all sectors of the Philippine society to collective and organized efforts to:

- a. pursue active awareness campaign in the home, school, workplace, community, and the media to bring out the right information and perspectives about environmental issues and concerns;
- b. offer the time, talents, skills and other resources in undertaking environmental programs, projects and activities; and
- c. showcase and recognize the good practices in volunteering for the
