EDILBERTO L. OPLENARIA

Officer in Charge, Schools Division Superintendent

Division of Malaybalay City, Region X

Department of Education
Malaybalay City

Dear Superintendent Oplenaria,

Warm greetings on behalf of FIT-ED.

As program recipient of the Technology-Supported Teacher Professional Development on Early Literacy for K-3 Teachers Program, I am pleased to share that the online administration of the following tests for participant teachers will take place from 27-28 October 2016.

1. Teacher Strengths and Needs Assessment (TSNA),
2. Content and Pedagogical Knowledge (CPK) pre-test

The project is made possible with support of the American People through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and in partnership with the Department of Education.

In this regard, kindly be informed that the tests must be administered in 1 venue per day that meets the following technical requirements:

1. With stable internet access.
2. With ICT facilities that will enable up to 3 batches of 30-40 teachers each to access the online assessment over a period of 2 hours.

Further, the program will provide test proctors for the duration of the test administration.

Attached for your convenience are the schedule of activities and the list of K to 3 teachers with their assigned Respondent's Code Number (RCN). Kindly make sure that all the participants know their specific RCN. The participants will need to input their RCN in the online ELLN Digital Pre-test.

We do hope for your positive response and trust that we may follow-up on this matter soonest. Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us through telephone numbers: (02) 926-5121 / 5356, kindly look for Karen.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,
