 - 10.4. Most Disciplined Delegation
 - 10.5. Miss MILO Little Olympics

Please refer to attached mechanics indicated in Annex "A".

- 11. Participants must follow the rules and regulations the Event Organizer has set for their sport. Any athlete and/or coach guilty of cheating, misrepresentation, or conduct unbecoming of a sportsman shall be disqualified and banned from participating in all future MILO sports events as per recommendation of the Tournament Manager to the Event Organizer.
- 12. A secretariat office will be organized by the Event Organizer to provide assistance and entertain inquiries on general information, official results, and medal tally, but not inquiries or protests on technical matters. It will also entertain inquiries or protests on eligibility, but will only do so during the MILO Little Olympics solidarity meeting. Coaches who do not attend the solidarity meeting forfeit their right to question the rules and regulations approved during said meeting. The secretariat will not entertain any inquiries or protests on eligibility thereafter.
- 13. All inquiries and protests regarding technicalities of each sporting event must be directed to Tournament Managers only.

14. Any protest by the schools involving age, filed during the competitions, will not be entertained. However, the Event Organizer and Tournament Managers reserve the right to disqualify any athlete found overage with or without the proper counter-documents during the competitions.
15. Any formal, written protest on technicalities during the competitions may only be filed by heads of schools or authorized coaches.
16. The requirements for filing a formal protest are: a PhP 5000.00 non-refundable protest fee, a written protest duly signed by the school head or authorized coach, and attached evidence. All documents should be submitted to the Tournament Manager or his authorized assistant (as approved by the Event Organizer) within 30 minutes after the game in question. All burden of proof lies upon the protestee.
17. Any protest must be noted in the score sheet duly signed by officials of the game in question. Supporting documents required should be submitted within 12 hours from the time the protest was noted. Failure to do so will deem the protest null and void. Also, protests should not interrupt the schedule of games. Only the concerned Tournament Manager can decide if the protest is worth the postponement of certain scheduled games.
18. Games should have a minimum of four (4) participants/teams to proceed. If the minimum is not met, the Event Organizer may cancel the said sport with proper notice to the Tournament Manager and the participants.
19. The MILO Little Olympics will apply the General Championship Points System. Please refer to attached table indicated in Annex "B".
20. The Sponsor and Event Organizer will not be held responsible for any injury an athlete may sustain before, during and after competition. However, in case of injury, first-aid will be provided for participants during the event.
21. There will be two (2) sets of overall winners – one for the 12 and UNDER Division and one for the 16 and UNDER Division. As a courtesy to the Sponsor and Event Organizer, and to give honor to the winning schools, an awardee/s must attend the Awarding Ceremony. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of the award.
22. In case of typhoons, natural calamities, and other fortuitous events, the Event Organizer has the right to determine whether all games will be cancelled or postponed to a later date, with due notice to the heads of schools or authorized coaches.
23. The MILO Little Olympics is privately organized. It does not necessarily need to seek sanction from any of the National Sports Associations (NSAs). The Event Organizer shall operate on its own merits and appoint its own technical staff.
24. The Event Organizer reserves the right to accept or deny participants, modify any of the above rules and regulations as it deems necessary to ensure the success of the MILO Little Olympics.
25. The MILO Little Olympics competition is open to all bona fide students in Elementary and Secondary Division of the official list of participating schools.
