AN ORDER CREATING THE LOCAL COUNCIL ON ANTI-TRAFFICKING AND VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND THEIR CHILDREN (LCAT-VAWC)

WHEREAS, Section 14, Article II of the 1987 Constitution declares that the State recognizes the role of women in nation-building and shall ensure the fundamental equity before the law of women and men;

WHEREAS, Section 2, Article II of the same Constitution likewise provides that the State values the dignity of every human person and guarantees full respect for human rights;

WHEREAS, consonant with the State's obligation to protect the dignity of every human person, Republic Act 9208 or the Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003 was signed into law criminalizing the act of trafficking in persons especially of women and children for prostitution, sexual exploitation and slavery, among others;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 9262 or the Ant-violence Against Women and their Children (VAWC) Act of 2004 was passed into law primarily to safeguard the dignity of women and children while guaranteeing full respect of their human rights and to protect them from violence and threats to their personal safety and security;

WHEREAS, to establish and strengthen the local structure that will collaboratively address the problem on trafficking and VAWC, Joint Memorandum Circular No. 2010-1 of the Department of Interior and Local Government, Department of Social Welfare and Development and Department of Justice have issued a Joint Memorandum Circular No. 2010-1 directing the local government units to create local committees on trafficking and violence against women and children;
