Empowering Science Stories through Citizen Journalism

As part of the special segment of KALIPUNAN Newscast of i-INVENT PH Campaign, the Applied Communications Unit for Inventors (ACU-i) of DOST-TAPI is organizing a nationwide journalism contest on the theme, "Gawad Alunig x Dalumat: Empowering Science Stories through Citizen Journalism."

The theme seeks to showcase how Filipinos are innately innovative and that Filipinos can become science communicators themselves. While the pandemic affects us to reach Filipino inventors from the ground and made it more challenging to gather original materials to promote the Institute's services, it has also shown us that people are online and they are stuck from their homes in which they are more creative and have more vehicles to communicate.

The contest will highlight and communicate science and advocate a culture of inventiveness and ingenuity by featuring stories from the ground as communicated by the citizens.
