To whom it may concern:

Greetings of Peace!

We, the undersigned, are undergraduate students of Mindanao State University – Iligan Institute of Technology. We are currently conducting research study that aims to investigate how teachers' mental health literacy affects their own mental health as well as their teaching outcomes, including their own teaching experience, how they promote their students' mental health, and how they promote peace in the society. This study targets to reach 500 participants to answer the survey form.

In light of this, we are writing this letter to respectfully request permission to collect data at your school. Participants will be chosen based on the following criteria: (1) they are currently teaching in the basic education department (i.e., kindergarten, elementary, junior and senior high school), (2) they are 18 years of age or older, (3) they have been exposed to armed conflict, and (4) living anywhere in Mindanao. Rest assured that any information you submit will be kept private and used solely for research purposes.

Attached to this letter is a copy of the survey form. Herewith also is the link to the online survey form for your perusal: https://cuhk.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0d2ffmfl88qTuQu.

Should you have any questions about the study, you can contact the investigators using the information provided below. We sincerely appreciate your willingness to accommodate this request. Thank you very much, and God bless.

Respectfully yours,

 Omailah Hassan	omailah.hassan@g.msuiit.edu.ph
 Eve Marie Fatima Jimenez	evemariifatima.jimenez@g.msuiit.edu.ph
